Peace and Wellness through Dog Therapy®

QUIZ: Are you ready to become a therapy dog team?

Answer the following question to see if your dog and you are a good fit for therapy work.

My dog ...

- o Welcomes, not just tolerates interactions with new people
- o Is confident in new environments and around unusual equipment and noises
- o Is well-behaved when meeting strangers of different ages, races, and genders
- o Is able to be petted and hugged without getting anxious or over-excited
- o Would tolerate being bathed and groomed before each visit
- o Consistently follow cues for sit, down, stay, leave it even with there are distractions
- o Moves nicely on a leash through groups of people and past other friendly dogs

As the Handler, I am ...

- o Able to read my dog's body language and know when they're content and when they are not
- o Committed to being my dog's advocate and keeping them safe while visiting
- o Ready to be an active part of the team, ensuring those we visit and my dog have a great experience
